PREAMBLE

The Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000, (the “Act”) came into operation on 23 November 2001. Section 51 of this Act requires that a private body such as Hans Merensky Holdings Proprietary Limited (the “Company”), must compile this Manual to give information to the public regarding the procedure to be followed in requesting information from it for the purpose of exercising or protecting rights.

INTRODUCTION TO THIS PRIVATE BODY

The main activities of the Company is the growing of timber on a long-term rotation, sawmilling, timber laminating, the growing and processing of avocados and mangoes, and the marketing of these products.

The Company has compiled this Manual not only to comply with the provisions of the Act, but to further foster a culture of transparency and accountability in its environment, and ensure that members of the public have effective access to information in its possession which will assist them in the exercise and protection of their rights.

In this Manual you will be able to view the categories of information which the Company possesses, and the correct procedure to follow should you require access to any of this information.

A copy of this Manual is also available on its website – www.hmh.co.za.

SECTION B – THE OFFICIAL GUIDE

In accordance with section 10 of the Act, the South African Human Rights Commission ("SAHRC") has compiled a Guide containing information reasonably required by a person wishing to exercise or protect any right in terms of this Act. It is available in all of the official languages.

The Guide contains the following information:

1. the objects of the Act;
2. particulars of the information officer of every public body;
3. particulars of every private body as are practicable;
4. the manner and form of a request for access to information held by a body;
5. assistance available from both the information officers and the Human Rights Commission in terms of this Act;
6. all remedies in law regarding acts, omissions, rights and duties, including how to lodge an internal appeal and a court application;
7. schedules of fees to be paid in relation to requests for access to information; and
8. regulations made in terms of the Act.

The Guide is available for inspection, inter alia, at the office of the offices of the Human Rights Commission at 29 Princess of Wales Terrace, cnr York and St. Andrews Street, Parktown and on its website at www.sahrc.org.za. See further contact details below:

2. Procedure for requesting access to the above information

If you wish to request access to any of the above categories of information, you are required to complete a request form as set out in Annexure “A” hereto. These forms are available from:
• Our information officer (whose contact details are in section A of this manual);
• The SAHRC website (www.sahrc.org.za)
• The Department of Justice and Constitutional Development website (www.doj.gov.za)
There is a prescribed fee (payable in advance) for requesting and accessing information in terms of the Act. Details of these fees are contained in the request form (see Annexure “B”).

You may also be called upon to pay the additional fees prescribed by regulation for searching for and compiling the information which you have requested, including copying charges.

It is important to note that access is not automatic – you must identify the right you are seeking to exercise or protect and explain why the record you request is required for the exercise or protection of that right. You will be notified in the manner indicated by you on the request form whether your request has been approved.
